

SCIENCE ACADEMY CANDIDATE INFORMATION FORM
Candidate's Version

The nominator can choose to fill the candidate information form or request the candidate to fill the candidates' version of this form. This is the version to be completed by the nominator

Candidate's

Name, Surname:

Academic Address:

E-mail:

*Please use this form to summarize the candidate's scientific achievements.
You may leave out those items which are not applicable.*

1. This item is the basic part of your report: What are your most important original contributions to science or scholarship? You can use the box below or attach a referee's letter. Please do not include citation counts and other numerical indices here.

Theoretical and methodological contributions and/or Candidate's contributions of new and alternative approaches to his/her field and/or Development of new research areas and/or Discoveries that cannot be understood within existing theories and call for new developments; measurements and data obtained by particularly creative and original methods.

2. The significance and importance of your field of research in the context of current scientific challenges; overall description of your current contributions and future plans/outlook.

3. Important comments on and citations of your work which go beyond routine references (with the relevant quotations)

4. Contributions to the development of science in Turkey

5. Further comments